Picking a College is A Lot Like Dating

- Do you want to be with this college for possibly the next 4 years?
- Does the college match your wants?
- Does the college better prepare you for your future?
- Do you and the college have the same values?
- Does the college just look good online?
- Are you going to this college just because your friends want you to?

How to Find Colleges

- Studentportal.isac.org
- College Greenlight
- Ask teachers, counselors, and other adults
- Choose 3-4 schools you've never heard of to research.
- Don't rule out any schools based on cost.
- And remember, consider applying to at least 2 safety, 2 match, and 2 reach schools

College Visits

- It is going to be your home for the next 4 years.
- Every school looks good on a brochure or website.
- Get a sense of the on-campus experience.

College Visits: Be Proactive

- Ask intelligent, prepared questions.
- Schedule a one-on-one appointment with an admissions representative.
- Talk to students who attend that school.
- Consider an overnight stay.
- Attend a class.
